

March for Women's Rights

Sunday, October 15, 2000

Washington, DC

World March of Women

2000

We unite with women around the world to demand that leaders of the United States, the United Nations and its member States, and other institutions of power work to:

- Eliminate poverty and ensure a fair distribution of the planet's wealth between rich and poor, and between women and men;
- Eliminate violence against women; and
- Ensure equality between women and men.
